Hot Springs

Enjoy the Kaga area's hot springs at your own pace.

Katayamazu Onsen Soyu (Public Bath)

CAN BUS 26a→50m

This striking glass building was conceived by Yoshio Taniguchi, one of Japan's leading architects. The two baths, one looking towards the lake and the distant mountains, the other onto the forest, are switched between genders every day.
Open: 6:00 to 22:00
Café: 10:00 to 17:00 (Closed on Thursday)

Yamashiro Onsen Soyu (Public Bath)

CAN BUS 5→100m

Yamashiro Onsen's public bath is a 100% pure hot spring (no cool water added). The inside walls of either bath room display hand-painted tiles by 28 of the area's finest Kutani ceramic artists.
Open: 6:00 to 22:00
Closed on every fourth Wednesday morning.

Kaga Yumenoyu CAN BUS 11

This amusement complex facility offers more than 12 kinds of baths (including a bedrock bath), body care treatments and several massage rooms. Along with Japanese and western cuisine restaurants, it also hosts a very popular indian restaurant.
Open: 6:00 am to 4:00 am

Bessho Onsen CAN BUS 3→1.9km

100% pure hot spring waters overflow the tubs of this little known but very tranquil public bath. An open-air bath space and a sauna are also proposed.
Open: 11:40 to 21:30

Yamanaka Onsen Yuyukan

CAN BUS YAMANAKA2→1.3km

Surrounded by nature, this bathing complex facility proposes various types of bathing experiences such as saunas, hot water pools, whirlpool Jacuzzi baths and open-air baths. A very relaxing experience while listening to the melancholic melody of Yamanaka Bushi, the town's traditional folk song.
Open: 10:00 to 22:00 (last entry 21:30)
Closed on Tuesdays

Yamashiro Kosoyu CAN BUS 5→50m

Elegantly making use of the region's finest crafts such as lacquerware, porcelain and stained glasses, this is one of Yamashiro Onsen's two public hot spring baths. The Kosoyu was rebuilt exactly the way it was during the Meiji era. Although not equipped with usual separate spaces for shower, it is still a place worth going for relaxing and soaking in a nostalgic scenery.
Open: 10:00 to 22:00

Yamanaka Onsen Kikunoyu (Public Bath)

CAN BUS YAMANAKA2

The name of Yamanaka Onsen's public bath, Kikunoyu (chrysanthemum hot water) refers to both a haiku poem by Matsuo Basho, one of the town's most famous visitors, and to the healing properties of the waters, as the chrysanthemum symbolizes eternity according to the Chinese folklore. Men and women's baths are in two separate elegant buildings facing each other. The men's bath displays an interesting narrative illustration of the town's history.
Open: 6:45 to 22:00

Crafts

Discover and experience the Kutani porcelain and the Yamanaka lacquerware, highly refined crafts deeply rooted in Kaga's history and traditions.

Iroha Soan (Yamashiro Onsen) CAN BUS 4→150m

Kitaoji Rosanjin, a famous multifaceted artist stayed and worked in this cozy and beautiful cottage for a few weeks around 1915, beginning to work there as a potter, a field he would ultimately become famous in. Preserving most of the cottage's original lay out and its "belle époque" atmosphere, the interior also displays many examples of the artist's work.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00 (last entry at 16:30)
Closed on Thursdays

Kutaniyaki Art Museum CAN BUS 14→100m

Widely considered one of Japan's most original and greatly decorative porcelain styles, the Kutani porcelain has left a remarkable legacy that lives on up to these days. Along with the turmoil of history and the work of successive generations of talented artisans, the Kutani porcelain has evolved to cover a wide range of distinctive styles and approaches that can be admired in this museum.
Open: 9:00 to 16:30 Closed on Mondays

Kaga City Art Museum CAN BUS 1→50m

Located in front of the railway station, this museum permanently displays a wide range of art and craft works from renowned artists of the area. All year long, regular temporary exhibitions covering many disciplines are also dedicated to the works of amateur artists and citizens of Kaga.
Open: 10:00 to 17:30
Closed on Mondays, December 30th, 31st and January 1st

Mugen-An

CAN BUS YAMANAKA2→950m

This splendid late samurai house was moved from Kanazawa to Yamanaka Onsen during the Taisho period (1912-1926). Ever since it has managed to preserve the atmosphere of the period as well as its high level of building technology at the time. The small garden promenade offers an exquisite view on the nearby Korogi Bridge and the Kakusenkei gorges.
Open: 8:30 to 17:00
Closed from December 29th to January 3rd

Kataoka Tsurutaro Art and Craft Gallery

CAN BUS YAMANAKA2→100m

This typical Taisho period western-style building was constructed in 1918 and registered in 1991 as a "traditional building for protection". It now hosts a collection of artworks by the famous TV personality, actor and painter Kataoka Tsurutaro.
Open: 9:00 to 16:30
Closed on December 31st

Kutani Porcelain Kiln Remains CAN BUS 6a→100m

This museum displays through permanent and temporary exhibitions a large collection of works that embody the rich tradition of the Kutani porcelain. Besides the main gallery lie the remains of the oldest climbing kiln from the time of the Kutani revival. Potter's wheel and painting workshops are also available on reservation.

History

Discover the rich history of Kaga through the Kitamaebune shipping route, the feudal town remains and temples of Daishoji and the tracks of Matsuo Basho in Yamanaka.

Basho no Yakata (Yamanaka Onsen)

CAN BUS YAMANAKA2→150m

Matsuo Basho was the most famous poet of the Edo period and a master of Haiku. An untiring traveler, he roamed the roads of northern Japan at the end of his life, a journey which would give birth to a poetry masterpiece: "The narrow road to the deep north". This building recalls through many documents Basho's passage here while displaying fine works from local Yamanaka lacquerware artists.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00 (last entry at 16:30)
Closed on Wednesdays

Kitamaebune Ship Museum

CAN BUS 21→100m

Kitamaebune was a trading vessels route along the western coasts of Japan that thrived during the Edo period, when Japan was almost completely isolated from the outside world. Connecting Osaka to the northern parts of Hokkaido, this shipping route gave birth to a very distinctive culture and life-style which is narrated in this museum through a large collection of documents.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00 (last entry at 16:30)

Zorokuen

CAN BUS 20

The town of Hashitate was once a port of call for the Kitamaebune vessels. Conveniently set half-way of the road connecting Osaka to Hokkaido, many shipping company owners built splendid estates in this area. Zorokuen embodies the particular architectural style of the remaining Kitamaebune residences. Both the materials used and the collection of crafts on display give an idea of the wealthy life-style that the company owners enjoyed at that time.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00

Jisshoin Temple CAN BUS 14→500m

This zen temple was founded in honour of Maeda Toshiharu, the first of the dynasty of feudal lords who ruled the area during the Edo period (1600-1868). The temple's adjoining garden still hosts the gravestones for each one of them. Cherry trees in the spring and bush clovers in the fall offer splendid sceneries to the visitors.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00

Zenshoji Temple CAN BUS 14→350m

Matsuo Basho stayed in this zen temple and wrote a famous haiku inspired by the willow tree in the garden. In addition to the splendid main building, the temple is also famous for its 517 small sculptures depicting "rakan", the disciples and followers of Buddha in a detached lodge. Each one of them was carved with a thorough sense for facial physiognomy.
Open: 9:00 to 17:00

Others

Are you more interested in nature? Science? Vintage automobiles? Kaga offers a great variety of attractions for you to pick up.
